Curriculum Newsletter

Year Three

Key Learning

Maths - Addition and subtraction, multiplication and division linked to 4 times and 8 times tables and their relationship. Revisiting fractions learning. English - What features does a cookbook need? Examine the different sentences types: statement, command and question. How language is used within an explanation text. What is an imperative verb? How is time expressed in a recipe? Finally, the children will write their own recipes. Science -What do we need to eat to grow properly? What affects the type and amount of food you need? What is a balanced diet?

Other Learning

Geography - Where am I? Local environment maps.
RE - Changing emotions linked to the Easter Story
French - Animals, directions and movement; word genders and the phoneme 'qu'
Music - Vivaldi's Four Seasons (Spring)
DT Food - What is a healthy snack? Creating a healthy snack.
PSHE - Internet Safety
Computing - Branching databases, creating yes and no questions
linked to sorting and classifying

Home Learning

Design a menu for a balanced meal. Think about a starter, a main course and a dessert.

What food groups will you use?
What nutrients will be present?

